Array coffee tables

Designer	Snøhetta
Year	2024

The Array coffee tables expand the Array system's compositional possibilities, adding practicality and additional surface options. Available in Canaletto walnut, bleached oak, and natural oak, the collection includes three rectangular and two rounded free-standing versions, designed to be used individually or combined, along with an accessory table that fits seamlessly between the sofa modules and can be easily repositioned as needed. With their essential design, Array coffee tables are versatile complements, ideal not only for the Array system but also for pairing with other collections.
