Edo

Designer	Tommaso Caldera
Year	2024

The Edo chair collection is an ode to traditional craftsmanship. Formed of solid wood, the structure is designed as a frame to which different fabric or leather seat solutions can be attached, making it versatile and suitable for different settings.
Featuring a sleek design inspired by Japanese aesthetics – the chair is named after ancient Tokyo –, it consists of circular-section legs with a tapered profile, while the back, in contact with the body, has an elliptical section that is more pleasant to the touch, which is also a detail with a distinctively simple design.

Frame
Frame made of solid ash and nylon feet.
Seat made of polyurethane foam and upholstered.

Cover
Fabric, leather or saddle-hide.
Removable cover (excluding saddle-hide).
